ADVANCED INTELLIGENCE SEMINAR #1-72
(See pages 17 and 41 in the OTR Catalog.)

The sixth running of the Advanced Intelligence Seminar (AIS), a special session to be given in addition to the one already scheduled for November, will be held from 8 - 24 September 1971. The AIS is a middle and senior level course designed for experienced personnel from all Directorates and the Office of the Director. (It should not be confused with the new Senior Seminar or with the Midcareer and the Advanced Operations Courses.)

The ADVANCED INTELLIGENCE SEMINAR places major emphasis upon:

- (1) the dynamic aspects of the changing international and domestic scenes which have an impact upon U.S. foreign policy and intelligence organizations;
- (2) current and future developments and problems facing the Agency and the Intelligence Community;
- (3) an examination of the intelligence approach to selected substantive problems.

The AIS is conducted in a seminar atmosphere to provide class members with the opportunity to engage in dialogue in depth with both speakers and fellow students. To achieve this objective, the class is being limited to a total of 25 students from all parts of the Agency.

Specific information regarding the sixth running of the AIS follows:
